Should YOU Make a Will?

by the Hon. William F. Waugh, Judge of the Probate Court of Cook County

[The editor invited Probate Judge Waugh to answer this question for you because he is recognized as one of the nation's outstanding authorities on the subject and, too, because he served as Counsel of the Chicago Dental Society from 1936 to 1943.

Judge Waugh's genial acceptance of the task, and the thoroughness and complete treatment given it would not surprise those who come before him. Lawyers recently accorded Judge the American Legion, and a member of Amvets and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.]

A recent survey disclosed that 60 per cent of the people whose estates were probated in the Probate Court of Cook County in the last twenty years failed to leave wills, with the result that the estates that they had accumulated in a lifetime of effort descended to and were distributed among their heirs at law in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois. In many instances that distribution was contrary to the wishes of the decedent; worked a hardship on the members of his immediate family; entailed unnecessary expense, and provided windfalls for relatives who contributed nothing toward its accumulation, and who often were wholly unknown to the decedent. The harsh and often inequitable disposition of one's assets at death may be avoided, and the natural objects of one's bounty provided for by the simple expedient of making a will.

Making a will requires more than merely writing out your intentions, if you really intend to have your wishes carried out. Its language must be clear and unambiguous and it must be executed in accordance with the law. In preparing and executing it you should have the assistance of a competent law-

98.3 per cent on the judicial qualities he has demonstrated since election to the Probate bench in 1946. This stands as the highest recommendation ever received by any judge in the history of the Chicago Bar Association.

He left Chicago in 1943 to serve in World War II—a return engagement, since he was a Captain of Infantry in World War I. This time he was a Lieutenant Colonel and won the Bronze Star Medal during his 27 months overseas. Part of his army work was in presiding over the spy trials in Italy and in supervising reorganization of the Italian civil courts. He is a past state commander of yer, and this is certainly one instance where, in my judgment, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

A will should be well planned, clearly written, revised from time to time to keep it up to date, and placed where it can be found when needed.

Let us take this well-ordered course:

Prepare a memo for your lawyer containing a list of your assets, how you desire to dispose of them, and a list of your nearest relatives, together with their last known addresses (they have to be notified when your will is presented for probate even though they take nothing under it). Then see a lawyer, present the memo to him, and tell him what you want to accomplish. He will bring to your attention the necessity of naming an executor (who must be a resident of Illinois), and the desirability of requiring a surety bond as a protection against avoidable loss, unless the surviving husband or wife or some other equally trustworthy individual is to be named, in which case it is customary to provide that he or she be authorized to act on the filing of a personal bond with surety waived. Or he may very well point out the advantages of naming a bank or trust company as executor, since the experience and judgment of their trust officers, coupled with the fact that they are impartial and will deal objectively with any situations that may arise, recommends their appointment. He will also inquire into what provision, if any, you have made for the payment of Federal Estate and Illinois Inheritance taxes, which may be assessed, and for the carrying on of any commercial enterprise in which you may be engaged.

Remember, too, that your will can get out of date unless you revise it from time to time. Personal relationships change, children are born, and sometimes beneficiaries named in your will die before you do.

Finally, make certain that the will is kept in a place where it may be quickly brought forward when it is needed. Leaving it with the lawyer or bank or trust company is recommended, or you may place it in your safe deposit box. In any event, keep it in the place where you have your insurance policies, title papers, and other valuable documents, and let someone you trust know of its existence and whereabouts.

You can see that the making of a will involves careful planning of your affairs, and is not merely making a disposition of your assets effective after death. What usually occurs when a man or woman approaches the making of a will in the proper manner of planning, is that they gain a whole new conception of their business and personal affairs and take steps that are to their advantage during their own lifetime, such as placing the family bank account and title to the home in their joint names, in addition to providing safeguards and benefits to their prospective survivors.

More than 30 per cent of all wills are drawn during the year prior to death. This means that a great many wills are drawn in haste or at time of unusual mental or physical stress or illness. These are the wills that are constantly being broken or which lay the foundation for long drawn-out and expensive legal battles.

Everyone should make a will. If you don't, the law will make one for you.

Now, what happens when the law makes your will? Let's take the case of the devoted husband and father whose every intention is to provide for his widow and children to the best of his ability. When he fails to make a will, the law gives her only one-third of his estate; the remaining two-thirds goes to the children. And if the children are minors, she cannot touch their share until a guardian has been appointed for the children, and, even then, it must be administered under court supervision. If there are no children, the law gives all the personal property to the wife, together with half the real estate. The other half of the real estate goes to the husband's relatives—his parents, brothers and sisters, or their descendants. When the law makes a will for a wife, the sur-

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW

It seems somewhat ironic that the professions, which have done so much to deserve the everlasting homage of a grateful public, should now be taking considerable abuse from the powers that be and actually fighting for their economic and political survival. Some of this abuse is due to the fact that a relatively small number of physicians and dentists are charging "all the traffic will bear." Word of this gets around and the first thing you know people are griping about the professional man's fees and saying that his income is excessively high. This leaves the door wide open for government control propagandists and they take full advantage of it.

Right here is where a good public relations program fits into the picture. Public relations, as applied to the professions, has been described as "a continuing process by which the professions endeavor to obtain the confidence and goodwill of the public, inwardly by self-analysis and correction to the end that the best interests of the public will be served and, outwardly by all means of expression so that the people will understand and appreciate that their welfare is the professions' guiding principle."

The medical columnist is doing a fair job, in the main, in keeping the public informed as to what's new in medicine, but we have no counterpart in the field of dentistry. Occasionally, a medical columnist devotes a column to a dental subject but there is no consistent effort being made to improve our public relations by this method. Many medical societies sponsor regularly scheduled radio programs in which physicians participate. We do this rather perfunctorily only when there's a dental convention in progress.

In this public relations business, the secret of success is the constant stimulation of interest in the professions by stories in the newspapers and over the radio, which give a fair, accurate, and authoritative report of their accomplishments. Only by so doing can we counteract the government control propagandists who attempt to belittle us. We must let the people know the truth.

THIS WRITING GAME

Most dieticians realize that the attractive setting of a tray of food will do more to stimulate a jaded appetite and is almost as important as the nutritive value of the food itself. Similarly, most writers realize that the same principle holds true in this writing game. An article may contain invaluable ideas and a whole mass of information and yet be presented in such a way that no one will take the trouble to read it.

Generally speaking, short articles are harder to write than long ones. Obviously, it is infinitely easier to write down everything that pops into one's mind than it is to do a job of selection. And, of course, short articles are more apt to be read than long ones. Perhaps the worst sin a writer can commit is to fill his article with tiresome statements concerning something that everybody knows about anyway. Readers, nowadays, are looking for the new, the significant, and the important, and skip everything else.

American Dental Association—CARE Book Fund Campaign

A plea for dentists of America to help replenish the dental libraries of war-torn Europe and Asia was stressed by Dr. Stanley D. Tylman in a recent letter sent out to Illinois dentists on behalf of the American Dental Association-CARE Book Fund campaign. Dr. Tylman, chairman of the Council on International Relations for the A.D.A., pointed out that "in country after country, dental libraries were badly damaged and, in some cases, totally destroyed by book-burnings and bombings."

In cooperation with CARE, the A.D.A. has established a special fund to provide dental textbooks so desperately needed by dentists and dental students abroad. All contributions to the A.D.A.-CARE Book Fund will be used exclusively for the purchase of dental books for war-depleted libraries and institutions. A $250,000.00 goal for the campaign was set at the A.D.A. Convention last fall.

Since news of the drive was announced, UNESCO and CARE have received numerous requests for American dental knowledge from institutions all over the world. One doctor commented, "If the American dentists could only see the conditions under which we work and our appalling lack of up-to-date information they would realize how much the news of the A.D.A.-CARE drive means to us."

In every instance of need, the UNESCO and CARE reports show, reconstruction efforts have been hampered by the lack of books to train professional men in new scientific techniques. That lack grew out of several causes.

First, book stocks were depleted by the wartime confiscations and book-burnings carried on by the invading armies. Then came the bombings which took a tremendous toll. Aggravating those losses was the fact that no new books were received throughout the war years—no knowledge of the new dental techniques developed here. The end of the war could not end the gaps in knowledge. Virtually all technical book publishing in the recent years has been done in the United States. And the lack of dollars continues to make it impossible for foreign universities and libraries to buy the modern books so easily available in America.

CARE's purchases of dental books are based on an extensive bibliography compiled by a professional committee of scientists and librarians. The subdivisions covered include caries treatment, oral pharmacology, oral prosthesis, dental materials, prophylaxis, oral diseases, orthodontia, oral anatomy, physiology and histology. All books are in the English language, a decision based on the fact that 85 per cent of the book requests received by UNESCO from foreign countries have been for books in this language.

Each book purchased through the A.D.A.-CARE Book Fund campaign will bear a bookplate inscribed: "A gift from the American Dental Association." Each volume will be a lasting memorial of the willingness of American dentists to assist their colleagues abroad.

The A.D.A.-CARE Book Fund welcomes contributions in any amount. Every contributor will receive an acknowledgement from CARE. With donations of $10.00 or more, donor may specify the country, type of institution, and the category of books. Because the Book Fund program is designed to help as many people as possible, books may be sent only to institutions, not to individuals.

Mail your contribution to the American Dental Association-CARE Book Fund, 222 East Superior Street, Chicago 11, Illinois.

WHAT'S NEW IN DENTISTRY

Results of comparative studies of streptomycin and penicillin in the treatment of infections of the oral mucosa showed that streptomycin penetrated the organic and inorganic contents of the saliva more readily; acted more rapidly in relieving symptoms; reduced bacterial numbers and stopped motility quicker. Both drugs gave satisfactory results clinically, with streptomycin better for topical application and penicillin for parenteral use.—Rosenthal and Winter, J. D. Research, December, 1949, V. 28, #6—abstract of paper.

A report of a case of osteomyelitis of the mandible treated with aureomycin would indicate further investigation and usage of this drug in similar cases. A far advanced case of osteomyelitis that failed to respond to the usual therapy and surgical intervention showed remarkable response to aureomycin. The copious flow of pus was reduced to a minimum in two weeks.—Egan, J. Oral Surgery, January, 1950, V. 8, #1, pp. 60-63.

Partial pulpotomy of primary and young permanent teeth has met with success in the hand of Gardner by using a new pulpal paste and root canal sealer of zinc oxide powder and a saturated solution of calcium hydroxide liquid. The new preparation causes rapid healing of the amputated pulp without pain or discomfort.—Oral Surgery, Oral Medicine, and Oral Pathology. April, 1950, V. 3, #4, pp. 498-503.

The use of topical applications of fluorides for adult teeth has been shown to be advantageous in an article by Klinkenberg and Bibby. Using the teeth of 139 students between the ages of 18 and 40 years, and having control quadrants in each mouth, the topical application of 1.0 per cent sodium fluoride and 0.06 per cent lead fluoride was used. After fourteen months, the quadrants treated with sodium fluoride showed 44.5 per cent less new D.M.F. surfaces, or 56.6 per cent less new carious surfaces, than did the untreated control quadrants on the opposite side of the mouth. Those quadrants treated with lead fluoride showed 27.5 per cent less new D.M.F. surfaces, or 38.5 per cent less new carious surfaces, than their control quadrants.—J. D. Research, February 1950, V. 29, #1, pp. 4-7.

Definite proof of the value of bitewing roentgenograms is shown by Trithart and Donnelly. Examinations of 254 children in three schools were given, using a mirror, explorer and bitewing roentgenograms. When the proximal cavities in all posterior teeth were recorded for both examinations, the roentgenographic examination proved indispensable, showing 54.5 per cent, 57.6 per cent, and 111 per cent more cavities in the three schools. In two of the schools, the roentgenographic diagnosis of permanent first molars showed 85.7 and 236 per cent more cavities than the mirror and explorer examination.

ALL OF US

The editor of the Farm Journal, Wheeler McMillin, writes in a pessimistic vein in a recent issue of that publication. Here are a few excerpts:

"June, 1975: This morning I stood in line until noon before the Health Administration offices. Wanted to get that tooth pulled that kept me awake most of three nights. I couldn't get in to see the clerk. Long ago, before we had this 'free' medicine for everybody, one could generally find a physician or dentist fairly quickly. They took a personal interest in your troubles. Now they just jot our

HELP WANTED!

The two classes of the Course for Dental Assistants will open at 6:30 on the evenings of September 11 and 13 at the Washburn School, 400 W. Division St. Final arrangements have been made with the Chicago Board of Education and the course has been approved by the American Dental Assistants' Association. Completion of the course will qualify dental assistants for the certification examination given by the national association.

omy—Dental Pathology, Sterilization and Bacteriology, Local and General Anesthesia, Dental Roentgenology, Oral Hygiene and Pedodontia, Diet and Nutrition, Pharmacology, First Aid, Dental Terminology, Carving and Drawing, and Laboratory Technics.

A special committee to select dentists to teach these courses has been set up by the Public and Professional Relations Committee. Each dentist who is chosen to handle a subject will meet once with each of the two classes and, in partial appreciation for his willingness to contribute time and scientific knowledge to the improvement of our dental assistants, will receive an honorarium of $18.00 for the six hours total teaching time.

Any dentist who is willing to help promote this most worthwhile activity of our Public and Professional Relations Committee by serving as an instructor in any one of the above mentioned subjects is requested to write or telephone the office of the Chicago Dental Society. WEST SUBURBAN

In many of the branch columns there is a cry for news, but I can honestly say West Suburban Branch has been very generous and thoughtful with many contributions of phone calls and cards. It is very gratifying. KEEP IT UP, BRANCH! . . . In arranging for a retiring presidential plaque for a study club I attend, the question of the Dental Emblem arose. The thought occurred to me that someone may be interested that the CADUCEOUS is the dental and medical emblem, as well as that of the U. S. Army and related corps. According to the Encyclopedia, it is a symbol of the magic wand of Hermes, and has a snake twined around a staff topped by wings; became associated with medicine because snakes symbolize wisdom. "A schemer subtle beyond all belief" was the Greek God Hermes. Some interesting details and a story will follow in the future. . . . Foster Robeson, we are glad to report, is doing nicely after reporting to surgery at West Suburban Hospital. . . . A. John Frymark had a slight accident in his office. I hope it is nothing serious. Fellows, have you paid your accident insurance premium? . . . We are sorry to report Louis Jelinek passed away. Louis was 83 years young and loved by everyone. He was one of the founders of Omicron Kappa Upsilon. . . . Ed Walters, who has been very helpful to this column, just returned from a nice trip. For three weeks he motored through the Canadian Rockies, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. He also visited Bushnell General Hospital in Brigham City, Utah, where he was stationed during the war. . . . I was fortunate enough to be a guest at the Oak Park group of the Lions Club at the convention held in Chicago for 3 days; and a steak fry at Geneva, Ill., July 26th., through the courtesy of Werner J. Gresens, Ernie Hudec, Arno Brett, and Al Kunch. What a live bunch and what a party; the Magic Cords (a beautiful quartet in more ways than one) and a lovely accordion player to soothe your nerves. . . . We are happy to announce that Kelly Frakes' lovely daughter, Joan, is probably married by the time this issue reaches you to Don Charles of Phoenix, Ariz. Joan graduated from Northwestern three years ago, while Don attended school on the west coast. . . . Winfield Scott has just moved into his new ranch type home at 1303 Jackson, River Forest. Lots of luck and happiness! . . . George Fleming just returned from northern Wisconsin, Lake Tokegama near Chetek. Fishing was excellent and golf poor. Well, we can't expect everything. . . . Bill Murphy is a proud father again, we have been unable to obtain particulars, only there is a question whether that is 5 or 6. Bill is not sure. Nice going, Bill. To accommodate the crowd, Bill moved to a new larger home. . . . Herbert Hazekorn is doing all right, too. Has just finished his first year of practice and has a new daughter named Ellen Sue. I hope next year it is a boy. . . . Howard J. Buckner had a nice trip to Ontario, Canada. . . . Rudy Weihe recently was installed as president of the Austin Lions Club. Well deserved. . . . Lloyd B. Hill has transferred his allegiance from the West Side to West Suburban Branch. His new location is 6843 Roosevelt Rd., Berwyn, Ill. Drop in and say hello, and welcome my old friend to the meetings. . . . Don't forget, If You Want Good Luck You Have to Make It Yourself. . . . Any news telephone, Merrimac 7-6292.—Olaf S. Opdahl, Branch Correspondent.

KENWOOD-HYDE PARK

Our president, Bob Kreiner, recently purchased a brand new De Soto and decided to get a little mileage on the car by driving down to Iowa for an extended visit with his parents in the old home town. . . . Ike Walton Otto Mast and family are headed for Steuben county in eastern Indiana. Otto owns a fine farm a stone's throw from Lake James. I'll bet he won't be driving the tractor as long as the fishing is good. . . . Ben Herzberg is attending a meeting of the Tweed study group in Kalamazoo, Michigan. . . . The members of the Interprofessional Committee met at Walter Dundon's home. It will be necessary to solicit the membership for additional contributions for the financing of the work of the committee. Your contributions will be appreciated and the committee is doing a grand job in its effort to recommend congressional candidates who desire to preserve the American way of life and fight against socialization of the professions. . . . Your correspondent would appreciate a few news items. Many of our members are out of the city at the present time. I shall expect a series of interesting items when they return. . . . The chairman of the program committee would be happy to get suggestions concerning the type of program the membership wishes for the coming year. If you communicate with our president, Bob Kreiner, he will be glad to pass on the suggestions to our program chairman.—Howard E. Strange, Branch Correspondent.

WEST SIDE

When I promised our scribe, Irwin Robinson, that I would write this column, I had forgotten how difficult it is to gather news at this time of the year with vacations and all in vogue. . . . Anyway, here it is. . . . Adolph Stark, our president, has all plans made for a big year for the West Side, beginning with a bang-up meeting on October 10 at Midwest Athletic Club as per usual. Irwin Robinson will give all the details about that and the other meetings later. Harold Epstein has plenty of season dinner tickets which he is offering for sale at a great saving. See or call him at your earliest convenience. . . . Whittaker has left for a two-week vacation in Wisconsin. . . . Hal Allids and his two daughters are now on an extensive tour extending from Canada all the way south to Mexico. . . . Fred Porath and family are spending their time from now until Labor Day in Wisconsin. . . . Peter Zullo, the newly elected president of the Arcolian Dental Society, wishes to announce that they are holding a golf outing August 16 at Nordic Hills. . . . We are glad to report that Sam Kretshmer is much improved. We hope to see him out to the meetings this fall. We miss you, Sam!—Irvin C. Miller, Assistant Branch Correspondent.

NORTH SUBURBAN

Your new president, Harland New, has been plugging along this summer putting things in order for another big North Suburban year, so if you have had your vacation, start planning to attend some really outstanding North Suburban meetings this fall. You will be getting more detailed information in a few weeks. . . . A letter was received the other day by Stevie Stephenson from his son Tom, who is the dental officer aboard a Navy ship taking part in these Korean landings. The only censorship of the news in this letter was what a son might, himself, censor when writing to his father. You will find it most interesting and informative on one phase of the Korean Campaign. "July 19, 1950, 1000 Yards off Korea—Dear Mother & Dad: Our amphibious landing went off pretty well considering the fact that the troops we landed had no previous experience in amphibious warfare. We had plenty of air cover (Navy and Air Force), also sea support, so were not bothered much by the North Koreans. We are getting most of our news now from Radio Moscow which is quite comical; 'Hello you aggressors you, You imperialistic bandits!!' Ha! Frankly, so far the army is getting the devil beaten out of them here. The 1st marines should arrive pretty soon and then the picture will change considerably. There are two typhoons on their way toward us now and we are waiting in port to see which way they will turn before we leave. Korea is the dirtiest, most barren country it has ever been my misfortune to see. Well, folks, I'll mail this note now for I must get back to work. I have no idea when it will leave the ship, however.—Love to you both, Tom." . . . Reporting on vacationers finds

Carl Brasmer back from a wonderful trip through the Canadian Rockies and points west, and he really enjoyed it. . . . O. B. Davy is back from his Eastern trip, which included an auto accident in Canada. . . . Bill Redlick is back from sailing in that Mad Mackinac race. . . . Jim Keith home after his pleasant two-week vacation at Sayner, Wisconsin. . . . Harry Chronquist is vacationing at Chetek, Wisconsin. . . . Zeke Smothers is heading for Nova Scotia soon. . . . Gene Stearns is getting ready for his annual fishing vacation in Wisconsin. . . . I won't go into detail, but O. B. Kibler attended a fur fashion show at a mink farm at Cary, Illinois. . . . Leonard Grimson is on his way to International Falls, Minnesota. . . . You will all be sorry to learn that R. R. Davy is still in the hospital. We really hope we see him up and around awfully soon. . . . Philosophers say "No news is good news," but to your correspondent "No news is no column," and that isn't good, so would you help with a card or a note now and then?—Milton Dawson, Branch Correspondent.

NORTH SIDE

George Winograd left July 30 for two weeks' reserve training with the army at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin. . . . Orville J. Bush has been honored with a visit by his mother from Germany. He has taken her to see the Ozarks and followed that with a trip to Eagle River, Wisconsin. . . . E. B. Kirby is spending a month in Florida with his family, and Rudy Block will do some fishing in what must be N. S. men's favorite spot, Wisconsin. . . . Bill Osmanski celebrated his son's first birthday on July 30 and is already giving the kid football know-how. Bill says his new home is much to his liking, about his only complaint for the summer is a troublesome golf game. . . . Leo Luckhardt is planning no vacation this summer because a baby in diapers would hinder all plans for relaxation. Leo is in the process of building a home in Mundelein and hopes that the expected material shortage will never develop; by the way, this new home will be a beauty—a six-room ranch with utility room and attached garage. . . . John Boles had the sad experience of having his father pass away recently—we offer all our deepest sympathies. . . . Joe Ambrose is spending six weeks in California; seems Joe got a new car recently so just packed up the family and a few belongings and off they were to Cal. to visit his folks. . . . Wilfred C. Corcoran, our N. S. president, has been trying to get away for a little vacation and rest all summer with no result, things have just been too busy. Cork hopes that the end of the summer will afford him a little time for a much needed rest. . . . The office of Rube Kadens informs this column that Rube is taking his wife and daughter on a two-week automobile trip that will include the New England states and part of Canada. They expect to do some fishing and plenty of sight-seeing. . . . Fall River Lodge and Ranch in Estes Park, Colorado, will entertain Walter Nock and family. It is said that Walter is sure planning on plenty of good fishing. We'll all expect to see pictures to prove any of the fish stories, Walter. . . . George W. Hax is enjoying good old Chicago this summer with a few week end jaunts to here and there. George is planning a more extensive vacation for the month of October—destination is as yet unknown. . . . C. K. Antonopulos has a trip to Europe in the formative stage. Chris plans on leaving in a few weeks and from what we hear the trip is to be rather extensive. Good traveling, Chris!!!—All for now.—Robert B. Oppice, Branch Correspondent.

It is remarkable how much rain can fall in a given space in a given time. A number of us were invited to Harold Drummond's summer home at Stop 35 in Michigan City. The Heights contingent arrived at 11 a.m., about which time it

I guess the old saying that it is the most obvious things that are mostly overlooked applies to us here in South Suburban too. . . . Just got word that one of our members called his butcher and ordered a whole cow saying that he had better get it and put it away in his freezer before the hoarders got it. . . . There is an awful lot of talk about when and whom Uncle Sam is going to call among the younger members of our group. It seems that a number of them have taken the trouble of taking out their uniforms and trying them on to see if they still fit. . . . C. E. Folkers is away on vacation. . . . On the 26th of July, there was a meeting of the officers of the branch to appoint the various committees and to line up the meetings for the coming year. A suggestion was made by Mike Hughes that one meeting of the year be a joint meeting with the ladies and to make it a social affair. The suggestion met with approval and a day was set for May of 1951, and tentatively to be held at the Olympia Fields Country Club. In setting up the meetings for next year, the program committee will endeavor to have speakers to cover the major phases of dentistry. For our first meeting in October, we have already lined up the Anesthesiologist of the St. James Hospital in Chicago Heights, Dr. Branch, who will speak to us on the different types of general anesthesia available for hospital use and also show us a film on procedure. . . . Neil Kingston has taken over the duties of the representative of the Interprofessional Relations Committee and is asking all of those men who pledged their contributions to mail them on to him. His address is 182 E. 154th Street, Harvey, Illinois. . . . That's all for now.—H. C. Gornstein, South Suburban.

LADY MELLANBY SPEAKS AT THE ZOLLER CLINIC

Lady Mellanby of England was the distinguished guest lecturer at a seminar conducted by the Walter G. Zoller Memorial Dental Clinic on June 15. Seventy-five members and guests heard Dr. May Mellanby discuss her research work. Her studies have led her to conclude that the diet ingested during tooth formation, if sufficiently calcifying in quality, will preclude or at least minimize dental caries experience in the post-eruptive period.

This was another in a series of seminars at the University of Chicago providing discussion of various points of view on important dental research problems.

number down in the book and hurry us through, if we get to see them at all.

"September, 1975: I have been trying to figure out in my own mind just when these present conditions had their beginning. Some say it was when the government bought all the railroads. Next they took the coal mines, then the steel mills, then the truck hauling business, then the whole petroleum industry. They said they had to have the mines and oil business to get fuel for the trains and trucks, and the steel mills to get enough steel for everybody. Just try to buy some now! Now the government runs nearly every kind of business, just as Russia did when I was a young man. Their production started going down and the country has been getting poorer ever since.

"July, 1976: Just two centuries ago the Declaration of Independence was adopted. Two hundred years! Years that saw the United States produce the highest standard of living that ever has been. And years that saw us, in my time, fritter away our freedom until all of us once proud Americans are no better off than serfs! Except the government crowd, of course.

"Are my 'Reminiscences' exaggerated? I hope so. But I have mentioned nothing that does not happen in England or Russia. And the U.S.A. has been faithfully following the English route."

living husband's share is apportioned in the same manner.

Where a person dies without leaving a will and without heirs, the entire estate, by operation of law, goes to the county in which he resides.

Making a will should be the careful and considered act of every man and woman who respects human and economic values. It should be undertaken when a person is in good health and of sound mind and motivated by the wish to implement the right of personal judgment, and reflect the love he bears for those closest to him.

If you have not already done so—MAKE A WILL—AND DO IT NOW.
